Introducing...

The Bible Sabbath Association

Scattered like salt throughout all nations of the world are millions of Christians who uphold the seventh-day Sabbath. They are diverse in race, language, and religious background. These Sabbath-keeping Christians are dispersed among more than 400 denominations and over a thousand independent, local fellowships. Whether large or small, each individual and each group has an exciting story to tell, and each desire to proclaim the Lordship of Jesus Christ (Yeshua the Messiah) and to share the truth of the biblical Sabbath.

Since 1945 the Bible Sabbath Association (BSA) has dedicated itself to helping Sabbath-keepers of all persuasions to learn about one another and to promote the one commandment repudiated by Christendom in general.

What is the Bible Sabbath Association?

The Bible Sabbath Association is a non-denominational organization, open to all believers in the seventh-day Sabbath. Its main purposes are

- to promote fellowship and cooperation among Sabbath keepers of various groups;
- to promote Sabbath observance on a non-denominational basis;
- to restore respect and honor for the Ten Commandments as a whole, with special emphasis on the Fourth, which has been forgotten by most of the world;
- to defend the freedom of Christians in all nations to rest and worship on the seventh day of the week; and
- to oppose or repeal all legislation that hinders Sabbath observance.

Benefits of BSA Membership

- A subscription to The Sabbath Sentinel, the official magazine of the BSA.
- Free shipping and handling on all materials ordered from the BSA.
- The privilege of voting on BSA business, including the election of BSA officers and directors.
- Eligibility to be a candidate to serve on the BSA Board of Directors.
- The choice of one free book. Current books available for selection are (1) Sabbath at Sommerhase, by Lettie Siddens, a 113-page book full of stories to read to children, or (2) Directory of Sabbath-Observing Groups.
- 100 free copies of one of our tracts (write us for a list of available tracts).

In addition, you will have the satisfaction of being part of an organization dedicated to promoting the seventh-day Sabbath to a world desperately in need of rest.

Who are BSA members? They are Seventh-day Adventists, Seventh Day Baptists, Messianic Jews, Church of God Seventh Day, United Church of God, and other Church of God groups, and a wide variety of independent Sabbath-keeping fellowships. There is a place for you in the BSA, so sit down and write us today and join the BSA.

Services Provided by the BSA

Resource Materials

The BSA has a large inventory of books, booklets, tracts, and other material that can be used for the study and promotion of the Sabbath. Materials may be purchased, and some from our video tape library may be checked out for a period of time. Please contact the BSA either by mail or through our Web site for a list of current materials and an order form.

The Sabbath Sentinel

The flagship magazine of the BSA has been published since 1950. The Sabbath Sentinel is devoted to news, articles on Christian living and theological issues, editorials, and announcements about activities and meetings—everything by, for, and about Sabbath-keeping individuals and groups.

The BSA Scholarship Essay Contest.

Every year the BSA offers college scholarships for essay contest winners. There are two contests (one for native English speakers; one for those who speak English as second language) running simultaneously. Three winners are chosen from each group. Please write the BSA for contest rules and information.

The Directory of Sabbath-observing Groups

The Directory contains information on hundreds of Sabbath-observing groups and congregations. See the opposite side of this flyer for information on how to order your copy of the Directory.
